

28th Annual Chingawassa Days
June 5th & 6th
Central Park
Marion, Kansas

Activities begin around 5 p.m. on Friday, June 5. Vendors are welcome to operate throughout the evening, with entertainment running until around 11 p.m. Saturday, June 5, is the main day of the event, with hours running from morning until late at night. Vendors are welcome to begin operating around 9 a.m., and may continue throughout the day. In the past business usually tapers off at the beginning of the main concert, but you may catch some customers following the performance. You are welcome to either close when the main concert begins, or remain open throughout the evening's entertainment. On Sunday, there is a Community Church Service, then the festival comes to a close.

This event is family-oriented, so we only allow appropriate items to be sold in vendor booths. Inappropriate items include but are not limited to: foul or harsh language on t-shirts, any kind of knives, ninja stars, weapons, silly string, fart bombs, fart bags, fart spray, etc. If you have questions about items, please ask. Please understand that if we observe inappropriate items in your booth, you will be asked to remove them from your sales display area. You will be asked to leave, if you do not comply with this rule. We appreciate your cooperation and understanding.

You will be given vendor passes, which will admit you to any activity in the park, except the main evening concerts. For example performers at past Ching Events have included: "Nitty Gritty Dirt Band," "Kentucky HeadHunters," "Three Dog Night," "Little River Band," "Restless Heart," "Little Texas," "The Guess Who," "38 Special" "FOGHAT," "The Bellamy Brothers," "Starship," "Joe Nichols," "Love and Theft," "Casey Donahew Band," "Phil Vassar," "The Charlie Daniels Band," "Dylan Scott!", Nate Smith, and Josh Abbott Band.
